

Litmustest for your PI Inquiry Question

Nr.	Criteria	Fill in below
0.	Start: My current inquiry question is:
1.	Are you passionate about exploring this question? Why?
2.	Is the question focused on the students' learning? Explain.
3.	Is your question a real question? (The answer is not known yet)
4.	Does the question concern your own teaching practice?
5.	Is your question specific? Find this out with the template below.
6.	Is your question inquirable?
7.	Does the answer contribute to the improvement of the teaching practice?
8.	Conclusion: Write the adapted version of your question here:

Is your question concrete?

Your current inquiry question is:
Is your target group specified? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Age of the students? - Are the students Science students? - Are the students Technology students? - What level do the students have?
What content is connected to your PI inquiry?
Which aspect of learning you want to improve? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - content knowledge - Skills -Attitudes Do formulate as precisely as possible what content or which skills or attitude you are aiming for.
How do you want to improve the student's learning? Which kind of activity/strategy do you want to use?
Conclusion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Target group is specified (Y/N) - Content is specified (Y/N) - Learning Aspect is specified (Y/N) - Strategy is specified (Y/N) Is your question concrete? (Y/N) Your question is only concrete enough when you have answered Y to all 4 previous subquestions.
Reformulate if necessary your newly adapted inquiry question.	